

PRESS RELEASE (OCTOBER 2011)

In a brilliant ceremony the “EBEA” honored businesses and entrepreneurs, who defied the adverse economic conditions and showed significant activity. The “EBEA” Awards 2011 held Wednesday, October 5 at the Athens Concert Hall. The award made by the Minister of Development, Competitiveness and Shipping, Mr. Michael Chrysochoidis, and attended by representatives of the political and business world. The first award for Export Activity and International Presence was held by Miltech Hellas S.A.

Miltech Hellas S.A. established in 1997, and is a purely Greek company with activities in development and production of high technology electronic systems exclusively in the area of defense systems.

The company includes a research and development department staffed with experienced engineers and has developed a range of military products, which are currently in use by the Armed Forces of Greece as well as third countries like USA, Australia, Europe and Middle East.

Company's main products are:

- Digital screens Aircraft M-2000
- Military Campaign phones
- Thermal cameras targeting, observation and driving chariots
- Cordless Peripherals
- Power supplies for missile systems and naval

The production department has modern robotic equipment for the production of electronic parts as well as a series of machines aircraft wiring. The unit of production has the most modern machinery control systems and computer cabling.

Major customers of the company are:

DASSAULT AVIATION France: Production of the entire system power supply of the aircraft fourth generation RAFALE

THALES France: Production of electronic parts missile systems and Radar

EADS - EUROCOPTER France: Production of wiring Helicopter NH-90 & TIGRA

MBDA - France: Production of electronic parts missile

KMW Germany: Production of electronic parts of the chariot LEO-II

ROCKWELL COLLINS America: Generation GPS devices

BAE America: Production Systems Protection A / F F-16, C-130, A-7

CODAN Australia: Production of regional wireless

ELBIT Israel: Production of regional wireless

The company has modern facilities 10,000 m in the industrial zone of Koropi and is certified by ISO 9001 & ISO 9100.

The last five years exports exceeded the 80% of sales.